DEFINITIONS

Ramada – A rentable area shade structure with picnic tables, grill/s, portable restrooms, and, in many cases, utilities. When not rented, Ramada's are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Day Use Area – An area suitable for picnics that is available on a first-come, first-served basis only. Day use areas generally feature seating and grills, but not in all cases.

RESERVATION GUIDELINES:

- 1) Reservations are taken by phone by calling 928-679-8000 or in person at the CCPR office.
- 2) Ramada reservations can be made at the CCPR office during regular business hours starting the first business day in January for that year.
- 3) In order to speed up the reservation process, customers may establish an account through CCPR's recreation management program (CocoRec found at www.coconino.az.gov/parks) prior to calling the CCPR office.
- 4) Rental fees are due at the time of the reservation. Cash, checks, traveler's checks and credit cards are accepted. Personal checks are only accepted when reservations are made in person, at the CCPR office.
- 5) Refunds for cancellations will be paid at the following rates:
 - a. 100% - cancellations occurring 60 or more days prior to arrival date.
 - b. 50% - cancellations occurring between 30 and 59 days prior to arrival date.
 - c. 25% - cancellations occurring between 15 and 29 days prior to arrival date.
 - d. Rental fees will be forfeited for cancellations made less than 14 days prior to arrival date.
- 6) Refunds will not be paid due to poor weather conditions during the time of a reservation.
- 7) Individuals must be 18 and older in order to make a reservation.
- 8) Reservations/permits are non-transferable.
- 9) Customers will be assessed $25 for returned checks.

RULES:

- 1) All Coconino County Parks & Recreation (CCPR) Park Rules and Policies apply.
- 2) Open fires are not permitted in ramada or day use areas.
- 3) User groups will be financially liable for damage caused to County facilities and equipment.
- 4) Ramadas and surrounding area must be left clean after use. Users will be held financially liable at the rate of $75 per hour per staff member for cleaning when ramadas are not cleaned after use.
- 5) The sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages to the general public is not permitted. Alcohol may be served to invited guests of the permit holder during private functions.
- 6) Activities that interfere with other park users or surrounding areas are not allowed.
- 7) Day use areas and ramadas are for day use only and may be occupied during park hours only or as noted on Use Permit.
- 8) The use of staples, nails, and tape to affix decorations or signs to ramadas or park fixtures is prohibited.
- 9) Ramadas are for small functions of no more than the established maximum occupancy. If party size exceeds maximum occupancy the function is considered a special event and therefore, special event rules and policies apply. Please contact the CCPR office at 928-679-8000 for further information.
- 10) Special event rules and policies apply at ramadas when activities, whether public or private, include, but are not limited to any combination of the following activities: entertainment, dancing, music, drama, sports/athletics, craft/vendor booths, displays, amusement rides and activities, parades, the sale or free distribution of merchandise and/or alcohol.
- 11) Where provided, utilities are available with a paid reservation.
- 12) Ramada maximum occupancies are listed below. Maximum occupancy does not reflect available seating.
- 13) Day use areas are intended for drop-in use only.
- 14) Day use area and ramada parking is only allowed in designated parking areas. Parking along the roadside, in forested or natural areas is not permitted.
- 15) CCPR reserves the right to eliminate ramada rentals and close day use areas during events such as, but not limited to, the County Fair, other special events or times of County-imposed fire restrictions.
- 16) Failure to follow all rules and procedures set forth by CCPR may result in removal from the park.
